Civil Action H-13-827

Preliminary Injunction

On the application by Ana Giron, the court finds:

1. On March 22, 2013, Giron filed a complaint against Julio Cesar Castillo. He did not respond to the complaint. On June 17, 2013, a default judgment was entered against Castillo.
2. On September 11, 2013, Castillo called Giron. He demanded she release the judgment against him. He threatened to fire her brother-in-law if she did not.
3. Castillo called Giron again and told her he hired five men to follow Giron and her husband, Juan Antonio Giron Galea. He said the men would hurt Giron and her husband.
4. Castillo went to Giron's workplace twice on September 11, 2013. Giron hid in an office the first visit. On the second visit, Giron was helping customers, and he harassed her in front of them.

Restraint

6. Julio Cesar Castillo must not:
 - A. Speak to Giron – by telephone, e-mail, in person, or otherwise.
